

A F R O F I T

Q3 CAMPAIGN · THE WHOLE THING, WRITTEN OUT

This is the place.

One promise for the quarter, three monthly chapters, twelve reels with the hooks that stop the scroll, six carousels alongside, and the four we'd put money behind. Words first. The designed version with images comes after.

FEEL IT AGAIN · IT'S ALL CONNECTED · NEVER TRAIN ALONE

WHY THIS CAMPAIGN IS DIFFERENT

We stop talking to the gym crowd.

Our last plan spoke to people who already think about training. Good content, aimed at the already-converted.

New members come from the person who sits all day, feels stiff and tired, is stressed, and quietly thinks the gym is not for them. This quarter talks to that person, about how they feel, not about exercises.

This is the place.

It is not a slogan, it is a response. Every chapter names something a person is feeling and lands on the same three words. Underneath them all, one idea: it's all connected to movement.

"Your back has been aching for months."

This is the place.

"You can't switch off after work."

This is the place.

"You're too tired to keep up with your people."

This is the place.

THIS IS THE PLACE

The quarter at a glance · three chapters, one door

MONTH 1 · LEAD

Feel It Again

Your body and how you feel. It can feel good again — more energy, better sleep, fewer aches. You don't have to be an athlete, just move.

THE SEDENTARY, STIFF, TIRED

MONTH 2

It's All Connected

Why movement fixes more than you think. The stress, the back, the mood, the people you love — all trace back to one thing. Trainer-led.

THE STRESSED AND THE SKEPTICAL

MONTH 3

Never Train Alone

The place and the people. A coach who knows your name and your plan, and a floor you're never alone on. Floor-trainer authority.

THE INTIMIDATED BEGINNER

Every post, every chapter, ends at one door — book your first session on WhatsApp. No discounts, no hype.

The first second is the whole battle.

- 01 Lead with the feeling, not the gym. Every hook opens on what the viewer already feels — the tiredness, the aching back, the noise that won't stop — so it reads as about them, not about us.
- 02 Open on a question. “Want to feel strong again?” “Back always aching?” “Can’t switch off?” A direct question, answered by the same three words, is what stops the thumb.
- 03 A real face or scene in frame one. Never a logo, never a glossy intro. Native beats polished, and native is what gets shared.
- 04 One idea, fast payoff, tight cuts. Opening cuts under ~1.8 seconds so attention never drifts. (Scored on the virality rubric: peak hook in the first second, sustain above 80%.)
- 05 The caption’s first line is the hook too. Half the feed reads before it watches, so the opening words carry the same stop.

CHAPTER ONE · MONTH 1 · LEADS THE QUARTER

Feel It Again

Your body and how you feel. It kept the ability to feel good — sitting takes it away slowly, movement gives it back. The honest, real version: more energy, better sleep, fewer aches. Never a miracle cure.

Who it's for: the desk-bound who have quietly accepted feeling older than they are.

01 Feel Strong Again

02 More Energy

03 Sleep Better

04 It's All Connected (the film)

REEL 01

MONTH 1 · TEXT ON SCREEN

BOOST-READY

“Want to feel strong again?”

THE IDEA

Strength isn't a look, it's what keeps your life easy as you age. Modelled on your best reel right now — grip that opens jars at eighty, stairs without a handrail. Carried by on-screen text, no voice.

CAPTION

Strength isn't for the mirror, it's the grip, the stairs, the energy to keep up with your life for decades. It's all connected to movement. This is the place.

Boost. The broadest cold hook, built on the longevity angle your best-performing reel already proved. Text-led, no narrator, it travels everywhere. Pure acquisition.

REEL 02

MONTH 1 · SILENT · KISUMU

“Tired all the time?”

THE IDEA

A simple story, no dialogue: someone arrives tired, trains, leaves lighter. Honest, no false promises. The simplest piece in the set, made for Kisumu where there's no crew.

CAPTION

She came in tired and left lighter. The tiredness that won't lift isn't fixed by rest, it's fixed by moving. This is the place.

REEL 03

MONTH 1 · NARRATED

“Sleeping badly?”

THE IDEA

A trained body sleeps. Short and honest, one of the few that uses a narrator. A hard session, a spent and calm face, a quiet walk out into the evening.

CAPTION

The nights you lie awake aren't a sleep problem, they're a movement problem. It's all connected to movement. This is the place.

REEL 04

MONTH 1 · THE CAMPAIGN FILM

BOOST-READY

“It all feels separate. It isn't.”

THE IDEA

The anthem that opens the campaign and says the whole idea out loud. Names the problems — bad sleep, an aching back, no energy, a short fuse — and pulls them into one thread: movement.

CAPTION

Bad sleep, back pain, low mood, no drive. They feel separate. They're not. It's all connected to movement, and this is where it starts. This is the place.

Boost, brand & reach. The thesis said out loud, the umbrella in one film. Carries the whole idea to a cold audience and sets up everything that follows. Also runs as carousel C3.

CHAPTER TWO · MONTH 2

It's All Connected

Why movement fixes more than you think. The stress, the aching back, the low mood, the energy to be there for your people — they feel separate, but they all trace back to one thing. Trainer-led, plain and credible.

Who it's for: the stressed and the skeptical who don't see what training has to do with the rest of their life.

05 Find Your Spark

06 The Aching Back

07 Switch Off

08 For The People You Love

REEL 05

MONTH 2 · TRAINER TO CAMERA

“Waiting to feel motivated?”

THE IDEA

The science people get backwards. We think motivation comes first, then we act — it’s the opposite, it usually comes after you start. A trainer explains it plainly, class and exercise footage cut in.

CAPTION

We get it backwards. We wait to feel motivated, then act. But motivation usually shows up after you start moving, not before. Stop waiting. This is the place.

REEL 06

MONTH 2 · STORY

BOOST-READY

“Back always aching?”

THE IDEA

A small story: an office worker’s back hurts, pills don’t fix it, a trainer shows simple coached strengthening, weeks later they move better. Carefully framed — not a cure, not medical advice, just movement doing its job.

CAPTION

Most everyday back pain isn’t damage, it’s a body that sits too much. Getting stronger, gently and coached, often eases the ache and helps protect your back. This is the place.

Boost. A pain everyone with a desk feels, said plainly. Hyper-relatable cold hook, and the careful, honest framing keeps it credible. Pairs carousels C2 and C6.

REEL 07

MONTH 2 · THE PHONE ANGLE

“Can’t switch off?”

THE IDEA

The stress reel, told through the phone — the calls and WhatsApps that won’t stop, and the gym as where it finally goes quiet. The phone goes in the locker, a hard session, a real exhale.

CAPTION

The messages don’t stop, but for one hour they can wait. Stress doesn’t leave on the couch, it leaves on the floor. This is the place.

REEL 08

MONTH 2 · NARRATED + TEXT

“Who are you really doing it for?”

THE IDEA

The reason beyond the mirror. A mother or older member who trains for the energy to be there for her people. The mirror moment reframed: not about looks, about being around, and able to be around, for the ones who need you.

CAPTION

It was never about the mirror. It’s the energy to keep up with the people you love, and the years to be there for them. This is the place.

CHAPTER THREE · MONTH 3

Never Train Alone

The place and the people. A coach who goes over your plan every month, floor trainers who actually know, and a room that welcomes you in. Afrofit's real differentiator — you are never figuring it out by yourself.

Who it's for: the intimidated beginner who thinks the gym is for people who already know what they're doing.

09 Never Alone

10 Meet The Trainer

11 Ask The Floor

12 The Team That Moves

REEL 09

MONTH 3 · STORY · MUSIC SHIFT

“First day, and the room feels big?”

THE IDEA

A new member walks in unsure (tense music). A floor trainer notices and comes over, the music lifts, they train together, members welcome them, it ends in the energy of a class. The community arc, the proof you're never alone on the floor.

CAPTION

The hardest part of a new gym is feeling alone in it. Here, a trainer notices, the crew welcomes you, and you're never figuring it out by yourself. This is the place.

REEL 10

MONTH 3 · EXPLAINER · REAL

BOOST-READY

“When did a gym last ask about your plan?”

THE IDEA

Promote the real differentiator: at Afrofit you meet a trainer who goes over YOUR plan, every month. Shown as a genuine plan meeting — a coach who knows your name and where you're headed.

CAPTION

Most gyms hand you a key and wave goodbye. Here, you meet a trainer who goes over your plan, every month. A coach who knows your name. This is the place.

Boost, the converter. The clearest differentiator we own — a coach who knows your name and your plan. Highest intent, runs straight to a booking, the best retargeting creative in the set. Walked through in carousel C5.

REEL 11

MONTH 3 · AUTHORITY SERIES

“Why does this muscle matter?”

THE IDEA

The authority piece, modelled on your best educational reels (the ‘glutes are a longevity organ’ voice). A floor trainer explains a specific exercise and why that muscle matters, plainly and credibly. A recurring series that makes Afrofit the leader.

CAPTION

The muscle everyone skips is the one that keeps you strong for life. Our floor trainers know which ones matter, and they’re on every session to show you. This is the place.

REEL 12

MONTH 3 · CORPORATE

“A team that drags, or a team that moves?”

THE IDEA

The corporate piece. A team arrives together, trains, has fun, the benefits land on screen — clearer heads, fewer mistakes, more energy. Soft, no invented numbers.

CAPTION

A team that moves thinks clearer, makes fewer mistakes, and shows up for each other. Same thread, bigger room. Talk to us about corporate. This is the place.

The key points, saveable.

Two a month, roughly. We deliberately run the key points across formats — a designed graphic and a trainer explaining the same thing — to drive them home cheaply. Half designed, half photo.

C1

Motivation Is A Myth

GRAPHIC · DESIGNED · MONTH 2

Action first, motivation follows. The saveable behind Find Your Spark: you don't wait to feel motivated, you move and it shows up.

C2

Why Your Back Aches

GRAPHIC · DESIGNED · MONTH 2

The back-pain education, carefully framed. Most everyday ache is sitting, not damage. Pairs The Aching Back. Not medical advice.

C3

It's All Connected

GRAPHIC · DESIGNED · MONTH 1

The campaign thesis, made saveable. Sleep, mood, energy, your back — all trace back to movement. Pairs the anthem film.

C4

Meet The Floor Trainers

IMAGE · PHOTOS · MONTH 3

Each floor trainer, a name and one real line. The authority, and the proof you're never on the floor alone.

C5

Your First Session

IMAGE · PHOTOS · MONTH 3

The first visit, step by step — met at the door, asked what you want, shown the moves. Removes the walk-in fear. Pairs Meet The Trainer.

C6

3 Moves For Your Back

VIDEO CAROUSEL · MONTH 2-3

A trainer demos three simple moves across slides, one cue each. Pairs the back theme and the floor-trainer authority.

Organic tests. Paid scales the winners.

We do not boost everything. Each piece proves itself organically first — watch-through, saves, shares — then spend goes behind the winner, branch-tagged, straight to WhatsApp. Four reels are built as cold-ad creatives from the start:

- 01 Feel Strong Again. The broadest cold hook, on the longevity angle your best reel already proved. Pure acquisition.
- 04 It's All Connected (the film). The thesis in one film. Brand and reach, sets up the whole quarter for a cold audience.
- 06 The Aching Back. A pain everyone with a desk feels. Hyper-relatable, and the honest framing keeps it credible.
- 10 Meet The Trainer. The differentiator only we can claim, highest intent. The retargeting-to-booking creative.

Every cut is scored on the virality rubric before spend — hook in the first second, sustain above 80%, one clear CTA — and runs to ~50 booking events per ad set before we judge it, then we scale the winner.

What we're doing better.

- 01 We talk to people who aren't in the gym yet. The old plan preached to the converted. New members come from the sedentary, the stressed, the intimidated.
- 02 We lead with how you feel, not equipment. Our own learning: equipment never leads, real faces and feeling win.
- 03 We built the conversion layer in. Meet The Trainer and the first-session carousel carry the booking in every chapter, instead of two convert-pieces in eighteen.
- 04 We run the key points across formats. A designed graphic and a trainer explaining the same thing, so each idea lands twice and cheaply. Look for the 'drive it home' pairings.
- 05 We refresh monthly. One umbrella, three angles, instead of one note for ninety days. And we kept what worked: real faces, honest voice, one booking action.

WHAT I NEED FROM YOU

Lock it, then I build it.

- 1 Confirm the names — This Is The Place, and Feel It Again / It's All Connected / Never Train Alone.
- 2 React to any of the twelve hooks you want sharper, softer or gone.
- 3 Say go and I build the designed version with images, plus the shoot brief for Ken, and prep the four boost creatives for Meta.
