

A F R O F I T

Q3 CAMPAIGN · THE WHOLE THING, WRITTEN OUT

This is the place.

One promise for the quarter, three monthly chapters, twelve pieces of content with the hooks that stop the scroll, and the four we'd put money behind. Words first. The designed version with images comes after.

FEEL IT AGAIN · IT GETS EASIER · FIT IS SIMPLE

WHY THIS CAMPAIGN IS DIFFERENT

We stop talking to the gym crowd.

Our last plan spoke to people who already think about training. Good content, aimed at the already-converted.

New members come from the person who sits all day, feels stiff and tired, is stressed, and quietly thinks the gym is not for them. This quarter talks to that person, about how they feel, not about exercises.

This is the place.

It is not a slogan, it is a response. Every chapter names something a person is feeling and lands on the same three words.

“Your back has been talking to you for months.”

This is the place.

“You can’t switch off after work.”

This is the place.

“You don’t feel like yourself in your body.”

This is the place.

THIS IS THE PLACE

The quarter at a glance · three chapters, one door

MONTH 1 · LEAD

Feel It Again

Your body can feel good again. More mobile, more energy, fewer aches. You don't have to be an athlete, just move.

THE SEDENTARY, STIFF, TIRED

MONTH 2

It Gets Easier

Too stressed, too tired to go? That is the reason to go. Training makes the rest of life lighter.

THE BUSY AND OVERWHELMED

MONTH 3

Fit Is Simple

It was never complicated. A few moves, done right, with someone on the floor. No screens, no gimmicks.

THE INTIMIDATED BEGINNER

Every post, every chapter, ends at one door — book your first session on WhatsApp. No discounts, no hype.

The first second is the whole battle.

- 01 Lead with the feeling, not the gym. Every hook opens on what the viewer already feels — the sitting, the tiredness, the stiffness — so it reads as about them, not about us.
- 02 Say the unexpected. “You’re not old, you’re just sitting.” “Too tired? That’s why you should go.” A small contradiction is what stops the thumb.
- 03 A real face or scene in frame one. Never a logo, never a glossy intro. Native beats polished, and native is what gets shared.
- 04 One idea, fast payoff, tight cuts. Opening cuts under ~1.8 seconds so attention never drifts. (Scored on the virality rubric: peak hook in the first second, sustain above 80%.)
- 05 The caption’s first line is the hook too. Half the feed reads before it watches, so the opening words carry the same stop.

CHAPTER ONE · MONTH 1 · LEADS THE QUARTER

Feel It Again

Your body kept the ability to feel good. Sitting takes it away slowly, movement gives it back. The honest, real version — more energy, easier mornings, fewer aches. Never a miracle cure.

Who it's for: the desk-bound who have quietly accepted feeling older than they are.

01 What your desk is doing to you

02 I thought it was my age

03 You don't have to be fit to start

04 Two weeks in, the truth

“You’re not getting old. You’re just sitting.”

THE IDEA

Open on a real office slump. Plainly: what eight hours of sitting does to your hips, back, neck and energy, then the three simple moves that undo most of it, shown by a trainer.

CAPTION

You’re not getting old, you’re just sitting. Eight hours at a desk does more than you think, and three simple things undo most of it. Book your first session.

Boost. Broadest cold hook, everyone with a desk feels it. A pattern-interrupt opener and an educational payoff drive saves and shares. Strong peak-hook at one second; keep cuts under 1.8s so it never drifts.

“I thought the stiffness was just my age.”

THE IDEA

A real member, honest, no transformation-photo cliché. Came in stiff and tired, now moves and sleeps better. Real face, real voice. The proof behind the promise.

CAPTION

She thought the stiffness was just age. Turns out it was the sitting. A few weeks of moving and the mornings got easier. This is the place.

WEEK 03

REEL

BOOST-READY

“You don’t have to be fit to start.”

THE IDEA

Knocks down the biggest mental block. Show the real range of people on the floor, not models, and a trainer welcoming a nervous first-timer.

CAPTION

You don't have to be fit to start. The first session is built for the person who feels the least ready. This is the place.

Boost, secondary. Broad reassurance hook for a cold audience. Removes the ‘it’s not for me’ block before the click.

WEEK 04

CAROUSEL · SAVEABLE

“Two weeks in. Here’s what actually changes.”

THE IDEA

Honest and realistic, slide by slide: energy, sleep, mood, less morning stiffness. No miracle claims. Built to be saved and sent to a friend.

CAPTION

Two weeks of showing up, honestly: better sleep, steadier energy, less stiffness. Not magic, just movement. This is the place.

It Gets Easier

People say they are too stressed or too tired to train. The truth is training is what fixes the stress and the tiredness, and makes work, sleep and mood easier. The reason you think you can't go is the reason to go.

Who it's for: the busy and overwhelmed who talk themselves out of it at the exact moment they need it.

05 Too tired? That's the point

06 What one hour gives back

07 No time? You don't need it

08 I almost didn't come today

WEEK 05

REEL · THE FLIP

BOOST-READY

“Too tired for the gym? That’s exactly why you should go.”

THE IDEA

The central objection flip, plainly, from a real trainer or member. Tired and stressed is the symptom. Movement is what gives the energy back.

CAPTION

The days you’re too tired to train are the days it helps most. Movement is what gives the energy back. This is the place.

Boost. Hyper-relatable objection, said as a contradiction the thumb stops for. Speaks straight to the cold, stressed audience. One face, one idea, fast payoff.

WEEK 06

CAROUSEL / REEL

“One hour here. Here’s what you get back.”

THE IDEA

The honest return: better sleep tonight, a clearer head tomorrow, more patience at home. Realistic payoffs, not life-transformation promises.

CAPTION

One hour, and the rest of your day runs smoother. Better sleep tonight, a clearer head tomorrow. This is the place.

WEEK 07

REEL

BOOST-READY

“You don’t have two hours. Good, you don’t need them.”

THE IDEA

The time objection met with the math. Three short sessions a week is enough to shift things. Show a quick, efficient session, in and out.

CAPTION

| You don't need two hours or a six-day split. Three short sessions, and the week gets easier. This is the place.

Boost, secondary. The time objection is universal. Quick, efficient session footage proves the claim in the same breath.

WEEK 08

MEMBER REEL

“I almost didn’t come today.”

THE IDEA

A real member on the days you least feel like showing up. Honest and warm, the quiet win of going anyway.

CAPTION

| ‘I almost didn't come today.’ The hardest days to show up are the ones that change the most. This is the place.

Fit Is Simple

Fitness was made to feel complicated. It isn't. A few simple movements, done regularly, with someone to show you, is the whole thing. Afrofit's analog, no-screen, do-the-basics identity — framed as reassurance, not a flex.

Who it's for: the intimidated beginner who thinks the gym is for people who already know what they're doing.

09 Never this complicated

10 No screens, just iron

11 Your first session, exactly

12 If you can stand, you can start

WEEK 09

REEL

“Fitness was never this complicated.”

THE IDEA

One trainer, no jargon, cutting through the influencer noise. The few movements that actually matter, that’s the whole thing.

CAPTION

No apps, no twelve-step routines, no gadgets. A few movements done right, that’s it. This is the place.

WEEK 10

REEL · THE ROOM

BOOST-READY

“No screens. No apps. Just iron and a coach.”

THE IDEA

The analog gym, plainly and proudly. Dumbbells, barbells, a coach on the floor. The thing the app and the empty home setup can’t give you.

CAPTION

No screen machines, no subscription to forget about. Just the basics that always worked, and someone to show you. This is the place.

Boost. The clearest differentiator we own, said with confidence. Strong visual pull from the iron and the floor. This is Yves’s analog-gym idea, made into a hook.

WEEK 11

CAROUSEL / REEL · CONVERTER

BOOST-READY

“Nervous about your first session? Here’s exactly what happens.”

THE IDEA

Walk through the first session, start to finish, so there are no surprises. Removes the single biggest beginner block, the fear of walking in not knowing what to do.

CAPTION

Nervous about walking in? Here’s exactly what your first session looks like, start to finish. Nothing to be scared of. Book yours.

Boost, top converter. Targets the ready-but-nervous, kills the last objection (fear of the unknown) and runs straight to a booking. Best retargeting creative in the set, pair with a direct WhatsApp CTA.

WEEK 12

REEL · CLOSER

BOOST-READY

“If you can get up from a chair, you can start.”

THE IDEA

The simplest possible entry. The most basic doable movement, so nobody feels too unfit. The campaign closer, pointing everyone at one door.

CAPTION

If you can get up from a chair, you can squat. If you can squat, you can start. This is the place. Come in.

Boost, secondary. Universal, encouraging closer. Lowers the bar to zero and points every viewer at the door.

Organic tests. Paid scales the winners.

We do not boost everything. Each piece proves itself organically first — watch-through, saves, shares — then spend goes behind the winner, branch-tagged, straight to WhatsApp. Four pieces are built as cold-ad creatives from the start:

- 01 What your desk is doing to you. The broadest cold hook, problem-aware and educational. Pure acquisition.
- 05 Too tired? That's the point. The universal objection flip. Stops the stressed, cold viewer.
- 10 No screens, just iron and a coach. The differentiator only we can claim. Cold reach plus brand.
- 11 Exactly what happens in your first session. Highest intent, kills the last objection. The retargeting-to-booking creative.

Every cut is scored on the virality rubric before spend — hook in the first second, sustain above 80%, one clear CTA — and runs to ~50 booking events per ad set before we judge it, then we scale the winner.

What we're doing better.

- 01 We talk to people who aren't in the gym yet. The old plan preached to the converted. New members come from the sedentary, the stressed, the intimidated.
- 02 We lead with how you feel, not equipment. Our own learning: equipment never leads, real faces and feeling win.
- 03 We built the conversion layer in. The old plan had 2 of 18 pieces built to convert. The first-session piece and the objection-flips now do that job in every chapter.
- 04 We designed for the scroll and the boost. Every piece has a stop-the-thumb hook, and four are built as paid creatives from the start.
- 05 We refresh monthly. One umbrella, three angles, instead of one note for ninety days. And we kept what worked: real faces, honest voice, one booking action.

WHAT I NEED FROM YOU

Lock it, then I build it.

- 1 Confirm the names — This Is The Place, and Feel It Again / It Gets Easier / Fit Is Simple.
- 2 React to any of the twelve hooks you want sharper, softer or gone.
- 3 Say go and I build the designed version with images, plus the shoot brief for Ken, and prep the four boost creatives for Meta.
